

Duncan Grey

12 Scottish Songs

Robert Burns

arr. Ludwig Beethoven
adapted and alto added by M. Whitmi

5

5

5

5

5

1. Dun - can Gray came here to woo,
2. Dun - can fleech'd, and Dun - can pray'd;
3. Time and Chance are but a tide, Ha, ha, the woo - ing o't.
4. How it comes let Doc - tors tell
5. Dun - can was a lad o' grace,

1. Dun - can Gray came here to woo,
2. Dun - can fleech'd, and Dun - can pray'd;
3. Time and Chance are but a tide, Ha, ha, the woo - ing o't.
4. How it comes let Doc - tors tell
5. Dun - can was a lad o' grace,

10

On blythe Yule night when we were fu',
Meg was deaf as Ail - sa craig,
Slight - ed love is sair to bide, Ha, ha, the woo - ing o't.
Meg grew sick as he grew heal,
Mag - gie's was a pit - eous case,

On blythe Yule night when we were fu',
Meg was deaf as Ail - sa craig,
Slight - ed love is sair to bide, Ha, ha, woo - ing o't.
Meg grew sick as he grew heal,
Mag - gie's was a pit - eous case,

1. Mag - gie coost her head fu' high, Look'd ask - lent and un - co skiegh,
 Dun - can sigh'd baith out and in, Grat his een baith bleer't an' blin',
 Shall I, like a fool, quoth he, For a haught - y hiz - zie die?
 Some - thing in her bo - som wrings, For re - lief a sigh she brings;
 Dun - can could na be her death, Swell - ing Pi - ty smoor'd his Wrath;

5. Mag - gie coost her head fu' high, Look'd ask - lent and un - co skiegh.
 Dun - can sigh'd baith out and in, Grat his een baith bleer't an' blin',
 Shall I, like a fool, quoth he, For a haught - y hiz - zie die?
 Some - thing in her bo - som wrings, For re - lief a sigh she brings:
 Dun - can could na be her death, Swell - ing Pi - ty smoor'd his Wrath:

20

1. Gart poor Dun - can stand a - biegh;
 Spak o' low - pin o'er a linn;
 She may gae to France for mel
 And O her een, they spak sic
 Now they're crouse and can - ty baith, Ha, ha, the woo - ing o't.

5. Gart Dun - can stand a - biegh;
 Spak low - pin o'er a linn;
 She gae to France for mel
 And her een, they spak sic
 Now crouse and can - ty baith, Ha, ha, the woo - ing o't.